

Please keep protecting our rights to privacy. We have the rights to choose not to be pestered , worken up, and disturbed during what little quiet time we have at home. The same applies to cellular phones, where we actually have to pay when someone intrudes on our life. Thank you.